Inexpensive and Speedy Resolution of Litigation

*127. SHRI S. RAMACHANDRAN PILLAI: Will the Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the steps taken to ensure inexpensive and speedy resolution of litigation on the basis of the recommendations made at the meeting of the Chief Ministers and Chief Justices, held in 1993; and

(b) the action taken on the basis of these recommendations to take steps for eliminating frivolous litigations?

THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI M. THAMBI DURAI): (a) and (b) The Chief Minister's and Chief Justices' Conference, 1993 has made a number of recommendations for providing inexpensive and speedy disposal of cases, including steps for eliminating frivolous cases. Government has taken a series of steps in this regard. This includes steps for amendment of Civil Procedure Code and Criminal Procedure Code, increase in the number of posts of Judges in the High Courts, provision of a statutory base to Lok Adalats- and vesting it with the powers of a civil court after the extension of provisions of Chapter III of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 to all the States and Union Territories, appointment of Special JudiciakMctropolitan Magistrates and adoption of other alternative and locally appropriate methods of disputes resolution.

In addition to the above, the various High Courts have taken a number of steps for expeditious disposal of cases, viz; grouping and classification of cases involving similar question of law, setting up of specialised benches, computerization of records, etc. The High Courts have also issued instructions to their subordinate courts to reduce frequent adjournment of cases.

Some States like Orissa, Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Nagaland, etc. have informed that they have set up Committee to suggest appropriate remedial measures for elimination of frivolous cases.
